Clinical Pastoral Education with HealthCare Chaplaincy Network

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is interfaith professional education for ministry that brings theological students, ministers of all faiths, and professional laity into supervised encounters with persons coping with a life-changing situation.

HealthCare Chaplaincy Network is a leader in the integration of spirituality in health care regardless of religion or beliefs.

Advantages of enrolling in CPE with HealthCare Chaplaincy

Work in world-renowned medical centers, with diverse populations

Learn from, and network with, experts in the field of chaplaincy at HCCN's Spiritual Care Symposiums

Engage with students of diverse faiths and backgrounds

Study with experienced, dynamic and innovative CPE Supervisors

CPE programs at HealthCare Chaplaincy Network are fully accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education, Inc.:
One West Court Square, Suite 325, Decatur, Georgia 30030, 404-320-1472 www.acpe.edu.

Application Process

Criteria for admission include the ability to provide spiritual care to others in intensive situations and to remain open to learning through an action-reflection educational model. An applicant is accepted after an assessment of essays, recommendations, and an admissions interview. Since each CPE unit in New York is unique and space is limited, applications should be submitted as soon as possible.

Tuition for one CPE unit in New York is $950.

To apply:

- Complete the online application, including all essays, at: www.healthcarechaplaincy.org/CPE
- Submit the application fee of $75.
- Arrange for three references.
- Provide copies of previous CPE evaluations, if any.
- When your application is complete, a CPE supervisor will contact you to arrange an interview.

Note: One unit of CPE consists of approximately 300 hours of clinical time and at least 100 hours of classroom and individual education for a total of 400 hours.
