Fifth Annual Interfaith Workshop for Chaplains and Other Clergy

Cultural and Religious Sensitivity in Dementia
Care: Meeting the Needs of Family Caregivers

FEATURING:

Jed A. Levine, Executive Vice President, Director, Programs and Services, Alzheimer's Association, New York City Chapter will help chaplains understand the symptoms and progression of dementia within the continuum of the disease, and provide information about the resources and programs available to assist those individuals and their families.

Olivia Ames Hoblitzelle, therapist, teacher and author of Ten Thousand Joys & Ten Thousand Sorrows: A Couple's Journey through Alzheimer's will share her experiences and lessons learned caring for her husband Hob. Ms. Hoblitzelle's teaching and writing are inspired by more than thirty years of practice in psychology, Buddhist meditation, and the wisdom traditions.

The Reverend Gregory L. Johnson, MDiv; SMM; BDiv; BM; BA will lead a discussion about meeting the spiritual needs of family caregivers. Greg is an ordained Interfaith Minister for Family Caregiving serving at the Marble Collegiate Church in New York City, and the founder of the New York City Family Caregiver Coalition.
